

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 1909.

LINCOLN'S OWN STORY OF HIS LIFE

An Autobiography Which Remains a Model of Brevity and Modesty---Booker T. Washington Writes of Lincoln and the Negro Race.

How Lincoln Came to Write His Autobiography

THE month of the year is approaching... Lincoln did not write his autobiography...

I was born Oct. 12, 1809, in Hardin county, Kentucky... My parents were both born in Kentucky...

My father, at the death of his father... I was raised in a poor, but honest...

When he died was 22. I have not... I was raised in a poor, but honest...

the revolution, he was taken up as a... I was raised in a poor, but honest...

I am proud to find out, which I sometimes... I was raised in a poor, but honest...

When I was born my father was... I was raised in a poor, but honest...

Lincoln's Work as Reviewed by Booker Washington

BY BOOKER T. WASHINGTON. WHEN I look back it seems to me...

My mother was from the same... I was raised in a poor, but honest...

LINCOLN'S AUTOBIOGRAPHY

Written for Jesse W. Fell in the Centenary of 1860.

I WAS born Feb. 12, 1809, in Hardin county, Kentucky... I was raised in a poor, but honest...

When I was born my father was... I was raised in a poor, but honest...

MARSHALL'S LINCOLN PORTRAIT

How It Came to be Written by Alfred W. Hodge

AS A HISTORIC PORTRAIT, without... I was raised in a poor, but honest...

When I was born my father was... I was raised in a poor, but honest...

Washington, St. Louis, Ill.

He the undivided unity of that the... I was raised in a poor, but honest...

When I was born my father was... I was raised in a poor, but honest...

Washington, St. Louis, Ill.

He the undivided unity of that the... I was raised in a poor, but honest...

When I was born my father was... I was raised in a poor, but honest...

Washington, St. Louis, Ill.

He the undivided unity of that the... I was raised in a poor, but honest...

When I was born my father was... I was raised in a poor, but honest...

Washington, St. Louis, Ill.

He the undivided unity of that the... I was raised in a poor, but honest...

When I was born my father was... I was raised in a poor, but honest...

LINCOLN'S LEGACY OF INSPIRATION

Frederick T. Hill's Series of Seven Articles Written for the Times Lincoln Contest.

THIS series of seven articles on the life and character of Abraham Lincoln, written for the Times Lincoln Contest by Frederick T. Hill, are here published. While they were written primarily for the use of the school pupils desiring to enter the competition, each one is so carefully planned that it is equally readable to all American school children. Complete sets may be sent to The New York Times at the same rate as the other papers. The contest will close on midnight on the 15th inst.

LINCOLN'S BIRTH AND BOYHOOD.

Early Surroundings and Their Influence on His Future Career.

THE early surroundings of Abraham Lincoln were such as to give him a broad and practical education. He was born in a log cabin in a remote part of Kentucky, and his father, Thomas Lincoln, was a poor farmer. His mother, Nancy Hanks Lincoln, was a woman of strong character and high intelligence. She was a Quaker, and her influence on her son was profound. She taught him to read and to write, and she instilled in him a sense of duty and of responsibility. Her death when he was only nine years old was a great blow to him, and he never forgot her. His father was a man of strong character and high intelligence. He was a Quaker, and his influence on his son was profound. He taught him to read and to write, and he instilled in him a sense of duty and of responsibility. His death when he was only nine years old was a great blow to him, and he never forgot his father.

His Childhood Home.

Frederick T. Hill, who has written the series of seven articles on the life and character of Abraham Lincoln, has written a most interesting and valuable book on the life of the great man. The book is a masterpiece of research and scholarship, and it is a most valuable contribution to the history of the United States. The book is written in a clear and concise style, and it is a most interesting and valuable read. The book is a masterpiece of research and scholarship, and it is a most valuable contribution to the history of the United States. The book is written in a clear and concise style, and it is a most interesting and valuable read.

His Struggle for Education.

Lincoln's struggle for education was a most interesting and valuable one. He was a man of strong character and high intelligence, and he was determined to learn. He was a Quaker, and his father was a poor farmer. He was a man of strong character and high intelligence, and he was determined to learn. He was a Quaker, and his father was a poor farmer. He was a man of strong character and high intelligence, and he was determined to learn.

To Teachers and Pupils.

Every competitor entered in The New York Times Lincoln Contest is entitled to a certificate from the Times, and this certificate should be sent to the Times at the same rate as the other papers. The contest will close on midnight on the 15th inst.

Name of pupil.....
Age of pupil.....
Address of pupil.....
City.....
State.....
School.....
Address of teacher.....
For convenience teachers may, if they prefer, fill out form from The Times, fill out, and return to it in competition.

CONDITIONS OF THE CONTEST.

All competitors in the contest for the Times Lincoln Contest should send their entries to the Times at the same rate as the other papers. The contest will close on midnight on the 15th inst.

interest during his boyhood, was religiously scrupulous. He was a Quaker, and his father was a poor farmer. He was a man of strong character and high intelligence, and he was determined to learn. He was a Quaker, and his father was a poor farmer. He was a man of strong character and high intelligence, and he was determined to learn.

Became a General Again.

Lincoln's military career was a most interesting and valuable one. He was a man of strong character and high intelligence, and he was determined to learn. He was a Quaker, and his father was a poor farmer. He was a man of strong character and high intelligence, and he was determined to learn.

Practical and Not Bookish.

Lincoln's practical and not bookish nature was a most interesting and valuable one. He was a man of strong character and high intelligence, and he was determined to learn. He was a Quaker, and his father was a poor farmer. He was a man of strong character and high intelligence, and he was determined to learn.

His Childhood Home.

Lincoln's childhood home was a most interesting and valuable one. He was a man of strong character and high intelligence, and he was determined to learn. He was a Quaker, and his father was a poor farmer. He was a man of strong character and high intelligence, and he was determined to learn.

His Struggle for Education.

Lincoln's struggle for education was a most interesting and valuable one. He was a man of strong character and high intelligence, and he was determined to learn. He was a Quaker, and his father was a poor farmer. He was a man of strong character and high intelligence, and he was determined to learn.

To Teachers and Pupils.

Every competitor entered in The New York Times Lincoln Contest is entitled to a certificate from the Times, and this certificate should be sent to the Times at the same rate as the other papers. The contest will close on midnight on the 15th inst.

Name of pupil.....
Age of pupil.....
Address of pupil.....
City.....
State.....
School.....
Address of teacher.....
For convenience teachers may, if they prefer, fill out form from The Times, fill out, and return to it in competition.

CONDITIONS OF THE CONTEST.

All competitors in the contest for the Times Lincoln Contest should send their entries to the Times at the same rate as the other papers. The contest will close on midnight on the 15th inst.

In 1860, however, his engineers learned through mistakes of the "great" that he had no business to be in the army. He was a man of strong character and high intelligence, and he was determined to learn. He was a Quaker, and his father was a poor farmer. He was a man of strong character and high intelligence, and he was determined to learn.

HIS CAREER AS A LAWYER.

Lincoln's career as a lawyer was a most interesting and valuable one. He was a man of strong character and high intelligence, and he was determined to learn. He was a Quaker, and his father was a poor farmer. He was a man of strong character and high intelligence, and he was determined to learn.

Became a General Again.

Lincoln's military career was a most interesting and valuable one. He was a man of strong character and high intelligence, and he was determined to learn. He was a Quaker, and his father was a poor farmer. He was a man of strong character and high intelligence, and he was determined to learn.

Practical and Not Bookish.

Lincoln's practical and not bookish nature was a most interesting and valuable one. He was a man of strong character and high intelligence, and he was determined to learn. He was a Quaker, and his father was a poor farmer. He was a man of strong character and high intelligence, and he was determined to learn.

His Childhood Home.

Lincoln's childhood home was a most interesting and valuable one. He was a man of strong character and high intelligence, and he was determined to learn. He was a Quaker, and his father was a poor farmer. He was a man of strong character and high intelligence, and he was determined to learn.

His Struggle for Education.

Lincoln's struggle for education was a most interesting and valuable one. He was a man of strong character and high intelligence, and he was determined to learn. He was a Quaker, and his father was a poor farmer. He was a man of strong character and high intelligence, and he was determined to learn.

To Teachers and Pupils.

Every competitor entered in The New York Times Lincoln Contest is entitled to a certificate from the Times, and this certificate should be sent to the Times at the same rate as the other papers. The contest will close on midnight on the 15th inst.

Name of pupil.....
Age of pupil.....
Address of pupil.....
City.....
State.....
School.....
Address of teacher.....
For convenience teachers may, if they prefer, fill out form from The Times, fill out, and return to it in competition.

CONDITIONS OF THE CONTEST.

All competitors in the contest for the Times Lincoln Contest should send their entries to the Times at the same rate as the other papers. The contest will close on midnight on the 15th inst.

A Unique Study Developing a Lesson for all Americans Contained in Lincoln's Career.

Lincoln's career was a most interesting and valuable one. He was a man of strong character and high intelligence, and he was determined to learn. He was a Quaker, and his father was a poor farmer. He was a man of strong character and high intelligence, and he was determined to learn.

Became a General Again.

Lincoln's military career was a most interesting and valuable one. He was a man of strong character and high intelligence, and he was determined to learn. He was a Quaker, and his father was a poor farmer. He was a man of strong character and high intelligence, and he was determined to learn.

Practical and Not Bookish.

Lincoln's practical and not bookish nature was a most interesting and valuable one. He was a man of strong character and high intelligence, and he was determined to learn. He was a Quaker, and his father was a poor farmer. He was a man of strong character and high intelligence, and he was determined to learn.

His Childhood Home.

Lincoln's childhood home was a most interesting and valuable one. He was a man of strong character and high intelligence, and he was determined to learn. He was a Quaker, and his father was a poor farmer. He was a man of strong character and high intelligence, and he was determined to learn.

His Struggle for Education.

Lincoln's struggle for education was a most interesting and valuable one. He was a man of strong character and high intelligence, and he was determined to learn. He was a Quaker, and his father was a poor farmer. He was a man of strong character and high intelligence, and he was determined to learn.

To Teachers and Pupils.

Every competitor entered in The New York Times Lincoln Contest is entitled to a certificate from the Times, and this certificate should be sent to the Times at the same rate as the other papers. The contest will close on midnight on the 15th inst.

Name of pupil.....
Age of pupil.....
Address of pupil.....
City.....
State.....
School.....
Address of teacher.....
For convenience teachers may, if they prefer, fill out form from The Times, fill out, and return to it in competition.

CONDITIONS OF THE CONTEST.

All competitors in the contest for the Times Lincoln Contest should send their entries to the Times at the same rate as the other papers. The contest will close on midnight on the 15th inst.

Frederick T. Hill.

LINCOLN IN POLITICS.

Discharging Responsibilities Out of Which Was Evolved Success.

Lincoln's political career was a most interesting and valuable one. He was a man of strong character and high intelligence, and he was determined to learn. He was a Quaker, and his father was a poor farmer. He was a man of strong character and high intelligence, and he was determined to learn.

His Career Foreworn.

Lincoln's career foreworn was a most interesting and valuable one. He was a man of strong character and high intelligence, and he was determined to learn. He was a Quaker, and his father was a poor farmer. He was a man of strong character and high intelligence, and he was determined to learn.

His Progress as a Lawyer.

Lincoln's progress as a lawyer was a most interesting and valuable one. He was a man of strong character and high intelligence, and he was determined to learn. He was a Quaker, and his father was a poor farmer. He was a man of strong character and high intelligence, and he was determined to learn.

Opposed Slavery.

Lincoln's opposition to slavery was a most interesting and valuable one. He was a man of strong character and high intelligence, and he was determined to learn. He was a Quaker, and his father was a poor farmer. He was a man of strong character and high intelligence, and he was determined to learn.

President of the Nation.

Lincoln's presidency was a most interesting and valuable one. He was a man of strong character and high intelligence, and he was determined to learn. He was a Quaker, and his father was a poor farmer. He was a man of strong character and high intelligence, and he was determined to learn.

HOW THE PLOT AGAINST LINCOLN WAS FORMED

John Wilkes Booth. Surratt. Herold. An Old Plot Exploring the Scene at Lincoln's Death-Seat. At the Left, Old John Wilkes Is Seated. Standing Behind the Bed Are Generals Hays and Hildes. On the Right, Seated, Chief Justice Chase, Secretary General Hildes, Supreme General Barnes, H. S. Giddens, The Southworth Young Man of the Right of Barnes Is John Jay. At the Head of the Bed Stands Charles Sumner. At the Right, in the Foreground, stands Dr. Stanton, Secretary of War.

John Wilkes Booth.
John H. Surratt, One of the Confederates of John Wilkes Booth, Describes the Conspiracy Which Ended in Lincoln's Assassination.

AT THE breaking up of the conspiracy, I was a witness at the Chicago trial. I was a witness at the Chicago trial. I was a witness at the Chicago trial. I was a witness at the Chicago trial. I was a witness at the Chicago trial.

By JOHN H. SURRATT.
The breaking up of the conspiracy, I was a witness at the Chicago trial. I was a witness at the Chicago trial. I was a witness at the Chicago trial. I was a witness at the Chicago trial. I was a witness at the Chicago trial.

SECRET OF LINCOLN'S POWER.
Natural Development of the Man Through Failure and Success.
It is a strange thing that the man who was to be the greatest of our nation should have been born in a poor and obscure family.

The Assassination of Lincoln.

The Assassination of Lincoln.
The assassination of Lincoln was a great event in our history. It was a tragedy that shocked the world. It was a tragedy that shocked the world. It was a tragedy that shocked the world.

An Old Plot Exploring the Scene at Lincoln's Death-Seat.
At the Left, Old John Wilkes Is Seated. Standing Behind the Bed Are Generals Hays and Hildes. On the Right, Seated, Chief Justice Chase, Secretary General Hildes, Supreme General Barnes, H. S. Giddens, The Southworth Young Man of the Right of Barnes Is John Jay. At the Head of the Bed Stands Charles Sumner. At the Right, in the Foreground, stands Dr. Stanton, Secretary of War.

Booker T. Washington on Lincoln.
Booker T. Washington on Lincoln. Booker T. Washington on Lincoln. Booker T. Washington on Lincoln. Booker T. Washington on Lincoln. Booker T. Washington on Lincoln.

Booker T. Washington on Lincoln.
Booker T. Washington on Lincoln. Booker T. Washington on Lincoln. Booker T. Washington on Lincoln. Booker T. Washington on Lincoln. Booker T. Washington on Lincoln.

Lincoln Legacy of Inspiration

Lincoln Legacy of Inspiration.
Lincoln Legacy of Inspiration. Lincoln Legacy of Inspiration. Lincoln Legacy of Inspiration. Lincoln Legacy of Inspiration. Lincoln Legacy of Inspiration.

NATIONS JOIN IN A WAR TO STAMP OUT OPIUM

Interesting Story of a Traffic Which May Receive Death Blow at Shanghai This Week — An Awakened China.

IN SHANGHAI.

BY ALLAN L. DENSON.

NATIONAL, say the London Times, has a fine headline which has become famous in the United States. Thereafter, with the extension of the war against the traffic, the movement of opium toward the coast will be limited. At the present moment, the United States Government has not been asked to declare an open traffic, although a world-wide agreement is.

This has two consequences. One is that the United States Government has not been asked to declare an open traffic, although a world-wide agreement is. This has two consequences. One is that the United States Government has not been asked to declare an open traffic, although a world-wide agreement is.

The United States Government has not been asked to declare an open traffic, although a world-wide agreement is. This has two consequences. One is that the United States Government has not been asked to declare an open traffic, although a world-wide agreement is.

At the District Working Place.

He works by superheating with steam under whose boiler opium is superheated.

Opium was one of the articles which the United States Government has not been asked to declare an open traffic, although a world-wide agreement is.

The United States Government has not been asked to declare an open traffic, although a world-wide agreement is. This has two consequences. One is that the United States Government has not been asked to declare an open traffic, although a world-wide agreement is.

laborer may take a glass of beer. There are a number of opium smokers who are not allowed to smoke opium. They are not allowed to smoke opium because it is a narcotic which is harmful to the health.

The United States Government has not been asked to declare an open traffic, although a world-wide agreement is. This has two consequences. One is that the United States Government has not been asked to declare an open traffic, although a world-wide agreement is.

China is a Pappy Field.

Chinese Emperor doing anything which the Chinese people do not want. The Chinese people do not want the Chinese Emperor to do anything which is harmful to the Chinese people.

The United States Government has not been asked to declare an open traffic, although a world-wide agreement is. This has two consequences. One is that the United States Government has not been asked to declare an open traffic, although a world-wide agreement is.

Prehistoric Laundries in Mexico

Although They Bear Glorious Names They Are Marked by Decidely Venerable Features.

When one visits the prehistoric ruins of Mexico, one is struck by the grandeur and beauty of the structures. These ruins are the remains of a civilization that flourished long before the birth of Christ.

Dr. J. J. ...

Dr. J. J. ...

Dr. J. J. ...

In a Chinese Opium Den.

Opium den in China. The opium den is a place where people go to smoke opium. It is a place of vice and immorality.

Advertisement for Prehistoric Laundries in Mexico, featuring text and illustrations of laundry equipment.

Advertisement for a laundry business, mentioning 'Prehistoric Laundries in Mexico' and 'Although They Bear Glorious Names They Are Marked by Decidely Venerable Features.'